DR. CHARLES V. WRIGHT

Dr. Charles V. Wright came to Decatur in 1966 as President of East Central Junior College. Upon his arrival, Dr. Wright began a series of changes that were to make East Central a leading junior college in Mississippi. Among these changes have been: a new Agricultural-Technology Building; Vocational-Technology Facilities; Fine Arts facilities; Physical Education Complex; Newton Hall, a new class room building and a new library building is underway and is scheduled to open in September.

Outside his duties as President of East Central, Dr. Wright is actively involved in community affairs and spends much time with his wife and three children.

The members of the tennis team have made the tennis courts at E. C. a popular place. Many students came to watch them practice and see the matches. But many people used the courts other than members of the tennis team. Not only other E. C. J. C. students, including the individual tennis classes, but also faculty members and students from surrounding high schools.

And what if they were lighted?

MISS EAST CENTRAL JUNIOR COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PAGEANT

Linda, Ginny, Jan, Suzanne and Pam

Pam Holley

Michelle Thornton

Mary Lynn Nance

Tricia Rosamond

Mrs. Graham,
Director

Pam Horn

The scholarship pageant is sponsored annually by the staff of the WoHelo. Each contestant is interviewed by the five judges, then competes in swimsuit, evening gown, and talent. The winner receives a $500 scholarship and goes to Vicksburg to compete in the Miss Mississippi Pageant in July.

This year the pageant was held on February 5 in the Fine Arts Auditorium. An overflow crowd shared the event with thirteen lovely ladies. Only one could wear the crown, but all were winners for having taken part.

CONTESTANTS

Linda Arnett	Ruth Denham	Tricia Rosamond
Suzanne Barnett	Pam Holley	Barbara Russell
Darlene Brown	Pam Horn	Michelle Thornton

In varying ways
students prepare then ultimately rejoice
or mourn
their preperations

However, not all learning is derived from books

No matter where you go from here,
certain memories
of this year will come to mind.

Your fondest recollections may be trivial incidents unshared by the majority of students.
